

CODE OF CONDUCT of the German Textile and Fashion Economy

The Code of Conduct of the German Textile and Fashion Economy outlines the values and principles to which we are committed.

We declare the following regarding compliance with the Code of Conduct:

The Groth & Hermanns Group declares that we support the objectives and content of the Code of Conduct, and we will make every effort to continuously comply with this voluntary commitment at all our locations.

We will communicate the Code of Conduct to our employees, business partners, and other key stakeholders in an appropriate manner.

We expect our supply partners to adhere to the Code of Conduct (or a comparable code) and encourage them to do the same with their contractual partners.

We take violations of the Code of Conduct seriously and encourage our employees, business partners, and other individuals to report any violations to us at any time.
